

Responding to Doubts about Islam

Description

Bismillahi Wal Hamdullillah Was SalÄ tu Was Salaamu â Alaa rasoolillahi

AmmÄ Baâ d:

Indeed it is well established that there was never a Messenger sent by Allah in the past except that he had enemies who opposed his call.

Allah the most High said:

Ù Ù Ù Ù Ø°Ù Ù°Ù Ù Ù Ù Ø¬Ù Ø¹Ù Ù Ù
 Ù Ù Ø§ Ù Ù Ù Ù Ù Ù Ù Ù Ù Ø¨Ù Ù Ù

And thus have We made for every prophet an enemy from among the criminals. But sufficient is your Lord as a guide and a helper {Suratul FurqÄ n:31}

These enemies exerted every effort in forging lies against those Messengers and disproving the true call they came with. They plotted and planned against them but to no avail.

Allah the most High says:

(They took to flight because of their) arrogance in the land and their plotting of evil. But the evil plot encompasses only him who makes it. Then, can they expect anything (else), but the Sunnah (way of dealing) of the peoples of old? So no change will you find in Allahâ s Sunnah (way of dealing), and no turning off will you find in Allahâ s Sunnah (way of dealing). {Suratul FÄ tir: 43}

The prophethood of the final messenger Muhammad was no different, there have been many attempts to disprove the Messengership Of Muhammad in the past, just as they did during his time.

This series looks at some of the present day claims against the call of Prophet Muhammad and the religion of IslÄ m he came with and responds to some of these claims.

Hopefully this series will be of benefit to the believers generally and those who are active in the arena of daâ□□ wah specifically.

Was Sallallahu â□□ alÄ□ NabiyinÄ□ Muhammad.

Doubt 1: There is no such thing as â□□ Allahâ□□ , our knowledge of evolution disproves his existance.

In regards to this claim it is essential to look at:
