Description

Bismillah Wal Hamdullillah Was Salaatu Was Salaamu âllâh alaa Rasoolillahi

Ammaa ba'd:

Upon the authority of Aus Ibn Aus âllâh Radhiyallahu âllâh anhu âllâh that the Prophet âllâh Sallallahu âllâh alahi Was Sallam said: âllâh Whoever makes Ghusl on the day of jumu'ah and washes well, and leaves out in the early part of the day and proceeds early, and he walks and does not use transportation. Then he sits close to the Imaam and he remains quiet and disturbs no one, he will receive for every step he takes, the reward of a years worth of action, a year of standing in prayer and a year of fasting!âllâh

(Collected by At Tirmidhi (496), An Nisaa (3/95) Abu Daawood (345) and Ibn Maajah (1087) and is declared âllâh Saheehâllâh by shaikh Al Albaani in âllâh Saheeh Abu Daawood (333)

A tremendous hadeeth establishing tremendous reward for the one who fulfills its conditions, even if a person practices it just once in his lifetime!
